

OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT—M. GUTMAN & CO.

PRELIMINARY TO OUR
Eighty-Second
SEMI-ANNUAL OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT

We beg leave to inform the public that we will open the Fall campaign with largely increased space for exhibiting our enormous stock, having leased the two large halls adjoining the premises we have occupied for thirty odd years. The spacious quarters were formerly occupied by the Masonic bodies of this city. With these additions to the Six Floors, we will be enabled to show our fast increasing trade, made and maintained by Fair Treatment, Large Assortment, and Lowest Prices; the Largest, the Best Assorted, the Most Stylish Stock of

Men's, Boys' and Children's Wear

Ever brought to this or any other town. Every day adds some desirable novelty to our already enormous stock.

DRESS FABRICS—GEO. E. STIFEL & CO.

TO-DAY the young Queen of Holland attains to the mature age of fourteen years.

During her minority the royal functions are performed by the Queen Regent, Emma, her mother. Holland with her colonies now has a population of 33,000,000, of which 5,000,000 is credited to the mother country. These figures show that Holland occupies no insignificant place among nations.

If you are looking for a big bargain, just come in and see our prices on all Summer Goods.

A VERY LIVELY TIME

Out at Elm Grove, Following Pipe Liners' Pay Day.

A ROBBERY AND SEVERAL FIGHTS.

A Gipsy Whips two of the Men and Collects a Bet he had Won—A Man has his Coat and $75 Stolen—Other Criminal Matters about Town Yesterday.

The pipe line workmen employed out beyond Elm Grove thought they owned that village yesterday afternoon and last night. They had just got their wages, and soon grew tired of carrying the money in their pockets. There were a number of fights, between members of the gang, and between pipe liners and outsiders. None of them proved very serious.

Adolph Fisher, a resident of the country, brought a load of wheat to the Elm Grove mill and sold it. He put his pocketbook, containing $75, in his coat pocket and lay down and went to sleep. When he awoke his coat, pocketbook, money and all were gone.

There was thought to be a pretty good clue to the thief, but at last accounts no arrests had been made, nor had the stolen money been recovered. There is a large camp of gipsies west of Elm Grove. Yesterday a man stopped there with a horse he wanted to trade. The gipsies made fun of his horse, when he bet he could hitch the horse to three of the elegant large wagons of the band, and the horse would pull them all. One big gipsy took him up, and a bet of $3 each was put up. The horse was hitched, but could not budge the wagons.

The Romani naturally wanted his money, but the owner of the horse ordered the stakeholder not to pay it over. The Gipsy then administered a good beating to the would be horse trader, and as the stakeholder still refused to disgorge, he started in to whip him, too. After he received two or three good body blows, he gave the Gipsy his $3, and both men left the camp, sorer and wiser than when they came.

One of the Gipsies' fine horses got its halter fast about a post and then tramped on it, choking itself to death.

ONE OF THE PIPE LINERS

Makes Much Excitement on Sixteenth Street.

Yesterday morning two pipe liners came into town and went to Gloeckner's saloon, on Sixteenth street, where they became disorderly. Lieut. Lukins went down and arrested the men. One was turned over to a citizen, while the lieutenant took a big fellow. He resisted, and being a big, burly fellow, was hard to subdue. After repeated warnings the officer cracked him pretty hard with his club. One blow struck Ed Michaels, who was assisting Lukins. Yank Heil also came to his assistance, and after fighting all the way to the lockup the man was lodged in a cell. The lieutenant had one hand pretty badly bruised in the scuffle.

He gave his name as John Callahan. The mayor gave him a pretty salty dose on two charges. The other man was P. J. Murphy.

In the Police Court.

In the police court yesterday morning J. W. Curry and William Patterson, disorderlies, went to the hill for fifteen days each in default of $1 and costs. P. J. Murphy, on the same charge, got thirty days in default of $5 and costs. John Callahan, the man with whom Lieut. Lukins had the trouble, got thirty days in default of a fine of $5 and costs for disorderly conduct and $25 and costs and ninety days on the hill in addition for resisting the officer.

Arrests by the Police.

Terence Carey was run in by Officer Trischler yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct. Officer Carney ran in Mike Boyle, for striking a lady on the street. Last night two men were scuffling for the possession of a cane on Market street, when Officer Carney came along. He took them into custody, but they professed to have been only in fun, and were let go with a warning. Last night Officer Scallan put in George Wilson and Thomas Kain, both plain drunks.

Hearing Set for To-day.

Last evening Rhea Gray was arraigned before Squire Gillespie on complaint of Mary Smedley, charged with keeping a house of ill fame, and Artie and Lou Taylor as inmates. They gave bond for their appearance at 2 p. m. to-day for a preliminary hearing.

FOR THE STATE FAIR.

Preparations for a Great Show in an Advanced State.

The fact that the annual State Fair is close at hand is apparent on all hands. The fact that it will be one of the greatest fairs ever given in the Ohio Valley is almost as evident. Yesterday Mr. A. R. Jacob returned from Washington, where he was looking after live stock exhibits, and secured some very fine hogs. To-day Mr. L. P. Sisson will return from Marietta, where he was on a similar mission.

The live stock entries close at 6 p. m. to-day. Entries in the ladies' and children's departments close at 5 p. m. Saturday. Miss Hess and the other ladies of that committee will be found on the ground to-day and to-morrow.

Entry Clerk Schrader has an office on the grounds now, and will be found there till the fair ends. Secretary Hank has also moved his headquarters to the grounds.

Twelve speed horses arrived yesterday. Many horses, both class and speed, are expected to-day, and by to-morrow evening nearly all the exhibits will be pretty well filled.

A new feature will be a novel and beautiful Japanese exhibit in the main building. Those who have seen some specimens of this exhibit say that it is one nobody should miss. It will no doubt prove an attractive feature.

The aquarium about the fountain is filled with very fine fish and makes a great show.

PROHIBITION CONVENTION

Of Marshall County Nominates a Ticket and Adopts Resolutions.

The Prohibition county convention of Marshall county assembled yesterday at the court house in Moundsville. The room had been decorated with mottoes and bunting by Oscar Wright, and presented a tasteful appearance. The meeting was called to order by J. Howard Holt, county chairman. Rev. G. W. Grimes, of Moundsville, opened the convention with prayer. The chairman then stated the object of the meeting, and on motion David Bonar, of Mead district, was elected temporary chairman, and George E. Fallor, of Moundsville, temporary secretary.

A committee on permanent organization consisting of L. G. Martin, J. H. Holt, Harrison Hicks, Robert McFarland and Thomas Scott was then appointed, and immediately retired to attend to their duties. During this time the convention took a recess to informally discuss matters connected with its work. The committee on permanent organization recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent, which recommendation was adopted.

The following ticket was nominated: House of delegates, D. J. States and B. L. Crow; clerk of the circuit court, Harrison Hicks; county superintendent of schools, E. Bonar; county commissioner, R. H. McFarland.

The following was adopted: We, the Prohibitionists of Marshall county in convention do hereby resolve: First—That the liquor traffic is the greatest curse of this country from a financial, from a moral, and from a political standpoint. That it robs the laborer of his wages, robs the church of her influence and power for good, and corrupts the fountains of government. That we declare our relentless hostility to the American saloon, and pledge ourselves to use our utmost endeavors for its extermination.

Second—That while it is not expected that a county convention should make declarations with respect to national questions, we do not hesitate to declare that all the financial questions, labor questions, questions of tariff and tariff reform pale into utter insignificance beside the question of the evil done to this country by the licensed American saloon. While we are in favor of protecting the American laborer from unfair competition with the foreign laborer, we are still more anxious to protect him from the saloon keeper, whether American or foreign born, who does no labor and is guilty of breeding disregard of law, crime, anarchy and confusion.

Third—We arraign the Republican, Democrat and Populist parties of this county as being the friends of the liquor traffic, and we charge that these parties design to foist the licensed saloon upon this county. We arraign the Republican party as the friend of the saloon because while they have from 500 to 1,000 majority in this county, their officers permit at least fifty saloons to run openly in defiance of law, within this county, which has repeatedly repudiated the license system.

Fourth—We endorse the national platform of our party, adopted at Cincinnati in 1892.

THE HEART

is liable to great functional disturbance through sympathy. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, often causes it to palpitate in a distressing way. Nervous Prostration, Debility and Impoverished Blood, also cause its too rapid pulsations. Many times, Spinal Affections, cause it to labor unduly. Sufferers from such Nervous Affections often imagine themselves the victims of organic heart disease.

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES, as Paralysis, Locomotor Ataxia, Epilepsy, or Fits, St. Vitus's Dance, Sleeplessness, Nervous Prostration, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Melancholia and Kindred Affections, are treated as a specialty, with great success, by the Staff of the Invalids' Hotel. READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHING—KRAUS BROS.

KRAUS BROS.

No other house does, ever did, or ever will, sell such sterling qualities as we quote.

IN YE OLDEN TIME the spinning wheel was universal, and all wool clothes were the rule. They are also the rule in our stock of Fashionable Suits, a rule, too, which there are no exceptions. No one in this vicinity takes exceptions to our clothing, because it is above unfavorable criticism in every point, Style, Material, Fit, Cut and Finish. Every suit here is All Wool, like a sheep's fleece, and also as well-fitting and durable. There is nothing like them elsewhere in this town. The public like our prices, too, because they don't find them as low elsewhere. As to style, it must be the latest to have a place in our stock.

COME AND SEE US.

STAR CLOTHIERS—D. GUNDLING & CO.

A MAN

Looking about the city for a Suit of Clothes to suit him at the present time will find more cheap-made, low-grade Clothing—Suits that upon examination are

FOUND WITH

Not a grain of anything in them but cotton and shoddy, although advertised as "all-wool," than has ever been shown in this market before. Cloth that is absolutely worthless for wear is made into suits just to fool you with. Are you being fooled with this trash right in the face of the fact that to-day

A DOLLAR

Will buy more of good stuff than it ever would before in the world? We have never lowered the high standard of our suits—that remains the same; but the price has been lowered. Same high-class workmanship, quality and fit, we have always had, but lower prices. For instance: Suits we used to sell for $15 and $18, we can now sell for $12 and $15. Just as good every way. This, then, is a real, positive saving of so many dollars, which a man can leave

IN HIS POCKET.

We don't do a low-priced business—that is, don't sell trash.
